

Sakura TV's set up at 9:30am far left

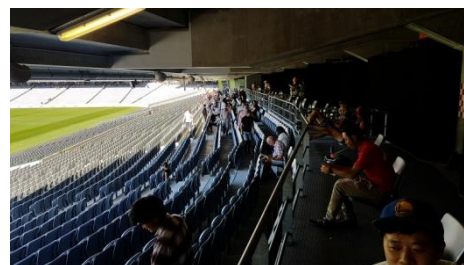

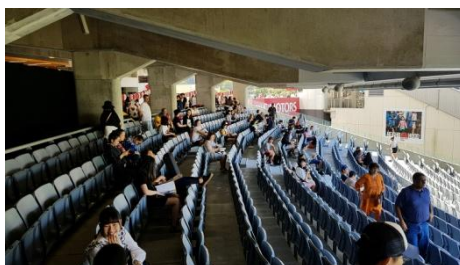

Sakura TV booth at 12:00 noon

Sakura TV set up large booth with attractive Japan Day banner painted by the Master Ryuzo sensei from Kyoto. Lots of visitors took photos in front of this banner.

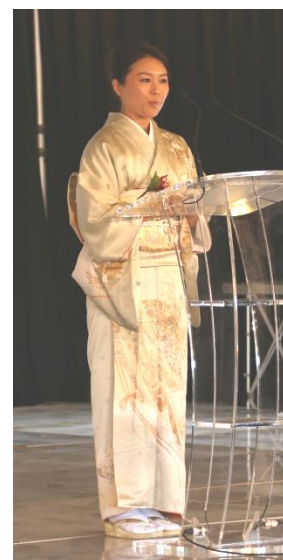

From left, Awaodori team from Tokushima Prefecture, Chair person of the Japanese Society of Auckland Incorporated, Cosplay girls, Ms. Rumi Sasaki from Japan and Ms. Jessica Phuang from New Zealand Police.

Visitors were everywhere, they used grand stand of Eden Park to rest. (Left/middle)

Main stage was fully attended by visitors to watch cultural performances throughout the day. (Right)

Opening speech from left;

Mr. Minoru Kikuchi, Consul General of Japan in Auckland オークランド総領事

Hon Jennv Salesa, Minister of Ethnic Communities, NZ Government
移民担当大臣

Mr. Phil Goff, The Mayor of the Auckland City オークランド市長

Ms. Ann Go, Chairperson of the Japanese Society of Auckland Inc.
オークランド日本人会会長

Shimajiro from Japan with Happin

Hatenkohro performance

Our Mayor with Rumi

VIPs are invited by Tea Ceremony

Canterbury Japan Day 2019 was held in Christchurch on same day on 3rd March.

Sakura TV distributed free tissue packs to visitors in Christchurch

In front of Sakura TV booth

The Japan Day 2019 committee announced official visitor numbers at 48,000, it was a very successful event, look forward to the Japan Day 2020, year of 2020 Tokyo Olympic and Paralympics.

Japan.
Endless
Discovery.

Sakura TV Oceania
@mustvisitjapan

