

Chinese Lunar Festival Year of Rats on 25th January 2020 at the Telstra Arena, Henderson, Auckland

Beautiful official opening dance followed by VIP speeches

Opening speech was done by our Minister of Ethnic Affairs Hon. Jenny Salesa followed by Members of Parliament.

Sakura TV support Chinese Lunar Festival every year and present a booth to promote the Japan Day as well as to promote our broadcasting service. Visitors were very keen to know about our service and many of them were interested in to attend Japan Day on 9th February next month. Successful day with more than 24000 people visited.

This event opened at 1pm, official opening was at 7:30pm finished with great fireworks at 10:30pm. There were steady stream of visitors throughout the day, they talk about trip to Japan and next Japan Day.

We had a "Happin" came along and it attracted lots of kids and families to take photos together with him. Happin is the official character of the Japanese Society of Auckland Inc, promoting 2020 Japan Day.
